

GET INVOLVED IN INTERNATIONAL COACHING SUPERVISION DAY

As part of International Coaching Supervision Day on 11th May 2018, we are offering a number of exclusive coaching sessions, free of charge, to help those looking to improve coaching results in their organisations or to provide 'next-level' support to workplace coaches who have already worked with Magnolia PD.

More and more organisations are investing in one or more forms of coaching with different levels of success and return on investment. Still in its early stages of development, Coaching Supervision is a formal process of professional support, focused on the wellbeing and professional growth of workplace coaches through reflection, evaluation and the sharing of experience.

Coaching supervision helps you maximise the potential of coaching and could be the thing that makes all the difference to your levels of success.

TWO WAYS TO GET INVOLVED

A bite size face to face event for organisations wanting to find out more about coaching supervision and how it can help them achieve their businesses goals.
